Academic Dress

Academic Dress

Academic dress shall be worn at special University ceremonies as Senate may from time to time determine.

Degree Colours

The standard colours for hoods and facings for the degrees in the separate faculties shall correspond as nearly as possible with colours and numbers of the British Colour Council Dictionary of Colour Standards and the Australian Colour Standard AS2700S — shown in brackets below. Hoods and facings shall be constructed of corded silk.

Visitor

Cap: Bonnet in black velvet, red cord.

Gown: Shape as Chancellor's, made in black figured silk, trimmed with red corded silk edged with gold bullion russia braid, the turn over on front red silk and to continue to back with red silk sailor collar edged with gold russia braid. Sleeves as for Chancellor, trimmed with red silk and gold braid, the red silk taking the place of wide gold braid used on Chancellor's robe.

Chancellor

Cap: Cloth trencher with gold tassel, or habit of degree.

Gown: Ordinary Chancellor's gown — or habit of degree — with a black silk stole embroidered with 7 blue Maltese Crosses encircled with gold braid.

Deputy Chancellor

Cap: Similar to Chancellor.

Gown: Black silk gown with gold coloured cloth — with black silk stole embroidered with 5 blue Maltese Crosses encircled with gold cloth.

Vice-Chancellor

Cap: Similar to Chancellor, with silver tassel.

Gown: Similar to Chancellor, but with silver braid and 5 blue Maltese Crosses encircled with silver braid.

Member of Senate

Cap: Similar to Chancellor.

Hood: Of degree, if any.

Gown: A black silk or stuff gown with tippet of same material. The tippet to be edged with gold braid on a foundation of red silk ribbon and the sleeves caught up in front with gold braid on a similar foundation, about 15 cm in length, and gold buttons.

Ex-member of Senate

Cap: Cloth trencher with black silk tassel.

Hood: Of degree, if any.

Gown: As for members of Senate.

Gatton College Council Gold Medal Recipient
